

ELIPSIS UNIVERSITY FILM FESTIVAL

The VIII edition of the Elipsis University Film Festival will be held from October 1 to 4, 2022, through an online platform, from the city of Santiago de Guayaquil, Ecuador. It will have special events such as workshops and master classes, among others, thus consolidating an unforgettable film experience.

General rules:

- The Elipsis University Film Festival is committed to the artistic, technical and discursive development of the cinematographic art, therefore, only films with important authorial components, which are sustained under an innovative look that contributes to the cinematographic art, will be accepted.
- Only works completed on or after January 2021 are eligible to participate.
- Films whose main language is not Spanish must be subtitled in Spanish, otherwise they will be disqualified.
- The participating films will be broadcast on a digital online platform during the four days of the Festival.
- Of the projects selected by the festival, the representatives are responsible for sending the film online in the highest quality, to the following email address: programacion.ficg@gmail.com. This version (if it is an updated version of the one sent for the call) must reach our email no later than September 10, 2022.
- Registration to the festival is voluntary, therefore, producers and distributors who register commit to send us their film and not to withdraw it from the festival in case of being selected.

- For the official competition, participating films cannot have any kind of open online exhibition during the selection process. Films that are publicly available on any online platform will be automatically disqualified.

- The official selection and awards are not subject to appeal.

- The festival accepts short films from 1 minute to a maximum of 15 minutes in length. There is no exception for any category or genre. Unfinished works will not be accepted.

Awards:

1.- Statuette.

2.- The winning Ecuadorian films in their different categories will be nominated to participate in various International Film Festivals that maintain alliance with our festival, up to one year after their presence in Guayaquil.
